SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- The defendant is not to use a computer, Internet capable device, or similar electronic device to access pornography of any kind. The term "Pornography" shall constitute any items depicting "sexually explicit conduct" of adults or minors as the term "sexually explicit conduct" is defined in Title 18 USC §2256(2)(B). This includes, but is not limited to, accessing pornography websites, including websites depicting images of nude adults or minors. The defendant shall not use his computer to view pornography stored on related computer media, such as CD's or DVD's, and shall not communicate via his computer with any individual or group who promoted the sexual abuse of children. The defendant shall cooperate with U.S. Probation Department's Computer and Internet Monitoring program. Cooperation shall include, but not be limited to, identifying computer systems, Internet capable devices, and/or similar electronic devices the defendant has access to, and allowing the installation of monitoring software/hardware on said devices, at the defendant's expense. The defendant shall inform all parties that access a monitored computer, or similar electronic device, that the device is subject to search and monitoring. The defendant may be limited to possessing only one personal Internet capable device, to facilitate our department's ability to effectively monitor his Internet activities. The defendant shall also permit random examinations of said computer system, Internet capable devices, similar electronic devices, and related computer media, such as CD's, under his control. The defendant is prohibited from sending/receiving text (SMS- short messaging service), images, video, or audio (MMS- multimedia messaging service) via a cellular telephone or other capable device as directed by the Probation Department. The defendant is required to notify their mobile telephone provider to prevent their account from sending/receiving SMS and MMS and provide documentation of the Probation Department as proof of this requirement.

- If the defendant cohabitates with an individual who has minor children, the defendant shall inform that other party of his prior criminal history concerning his sex offense.

- The defendant shall comply with the sex offender registration requirements mandated by law.

- The defendant shall participate in a mental health treatment program, which may include participation in a treatment program for sexual disorders, as approved by the Probation Department. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of such services rendered and/or any psychotropic medications prescribed to the degree he is reasonably able, and shall cooperate in securing any applicable third-party payment. The defendant shall disclosed all financial information and documents to the Probation Department to assess his ability to pay. As part of the treatment program for sexual disorders, the defendant shall participate in a polygraph examination(s) to obtain information necessary for risk management and correctional treatment.
